ORPHANS' DAY AT GENTRY SHOWS

Little Ones to Be Honored Guests at This Afternoon's Performance.

SHOWS BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER THIS YEAR.

ald and Gentry Brothers' Shows the in mates of the orphans' homes of Salt Lake City will be admitted free of charge to the matinee performance at Eighth South and Main this afternoon.

The arrangement involves no red tape. The orphans, accompanied by persons connected with the homes, will simply show up at the gate of the big tent, where they will be taken in charge by representatives of Gentry Brothers, who will escort the little ones to the best seats in the tent, where thy will remain not only for the main show but for the monking with the shows. In addition to his, Gentry Brothers will supply each bits, Gentry Brothers will supply each bit for the words of the best kinds and all the circus lemonade that can be some about 10 last night. They were accompanied on their return by a sizeable string of fish and might have got away with the stowy had not one of the boys taken a look at the catch.

The catch consisted of about 20 cents worth of catfish. It is a historical fact that the tackle was secured the backs of the pretty ponies and lumsy elephants until every orphan pressura has declared himself or herself satsfield.

(Special to The Herald.)

Boise, July 24—Rejoicing on the part of one portion of the population and indignation on the part of another chanterize Roise tonight over the untimely death of the ordinances that were passed just before election providing for midnight and Sunday closing of saloons. The ordinances were passed to take the question out of the campaign and there was an understanding among the saloon menthat they would be got out of the ways after the election. Before the campaign closed, however, Mr. Pinney, Republican candidate for mayor, came out in a card in which he pledged himself to enforce the ordinances. An effort was made to get the old council to repeal them, but it falled. The new council and the mayor were in a dilemma. The saloon men had been given to understand the ordinances would be whed out, while the mayor's pledge had been accepted by a large number of advocates of closing.

Yesterday an arrangement was perfected to relieve the situation. Frank calloway kept his saloon open. He was faceted for relieve the situation. Frank calloway kept his saloon open. FRANCE IS DOUBTFUL

Keen Suspicion Excited by the Meeting of the Czar With the Kaiser.

Faris, July 25.—The meeting between Emperor Nicholas and Emperor William excites the keenest curlosity and the newspapers this morning almost unanimously declare that the conference of the sovereigns is of the highest importance and that its fruits will shortly be felt throughout the world.

M. Jaures, the socialist leader in the chamber of deputies, expresses the opinion that the conference constitutes an offense against Great Britain. The Russian emperor, he says, apparently is seekoffense against Great Britain. The Russian emperor, he says, apparently is seeking an alliance with Germany.
Senator Clemenceau says: "It is well that Peterhof be made to understand that the interview creates suspicion in France. The French government has a legitimate right to demand of Russia a clear explanation of its foreign policy."
The Petit Republique says: "The Russian emperor badly needed the sound advice of the German emperor, who will amply satisfy that need."
Gabriel Hanotaux, former minister of foreign affairs, in the Journal, paints a sombre picture of the general situation and expresses the hope that the initiative of President Roosevelt in the direction of peace will prove successful.

Scrap and Are Arrested. A lively fistic combat which had not een scheduled as a 24th of July attrac-tion at Glenwood park took place last vening after the bicycle races. Two evening after the bicycle races. Two young men who gave their names as J. G. Cook and Robert Smith were the principals. They fought viciously for several minutes, badly punishing each other's faces until Officer Robert Burke put in an appearance and placed them both under arrest. At the police station they gave the names mentioned and put up bonds for their appearance in police court tomorrow morning.

James Warren, who has been employed by Corey Bros. Construction company, while taking in the sights of the G. A. R. carnival last night, had his pockets picked and $19.75 taken. He reported the matter to the police and gave them the description of a man who stood next to him while watching one of the shows, whom he suspected of taking the money. But the police were unable to locate him. The carnival is attracting considerable attention and some of the attractions are considered good.

It is alleged that after the deputy had arrested another man they came to the prisoner's assistance and enabled him to escape.

DECISION AGAINST THE ALLEGED FORGER

Victoria, B. C., July 24.—Judge Lampman said, in regard to the contention that the extradition act of 1886 had its application where it was inconsistent with the treaty and did not apply to perjury as that offense was not enumerated in the treaty as an extraditable offense; that the new treaty of 1889 or 1990, which made provision for extradition for perjury, was made for the purpose of extending the list of extraditable crimes not specified in the old treaty and its effect was to make perjury an extraditable offence unmake perjury an extraditable offence unwith him in his present illness and rejoice in the assurance of his speedy recovery To this end our united prayers will be directed, and

TOADSTOOLS WERE MIXED WITH MUSHROOMS AT FAMILY DINNER

Philadelphia, July 24. - Toadstoods 30, and two daughters, aged 7 and 2 mixed with mushrooms and eaten at a birthday party caused the death of four of the six members of the family of Joseph Franzor, a farmer, who resided near Landisville, N. J. The dead are: Joseph Franzor, aged 38 years; his wife, aged 1 and 2 years. The remaining members of the family, two boys, aged 5 and 4 years, owe their lives to the fact that they did not partake of the poisonous mixture. Franzor was a miner at Leadville, Colo.
